Cameron Goes On A Football Trip

A grid parade, a bonfire-pep rally and a football train—all were a part of the hoop-la that preceded the Cameron-Bellville football game Friday night.

All of the activity of Beat Bellville Days unleashed a tale of enthusiasm, told graphically here by these pictures. It started with a parade to Lawless Green Thursday night, culminating in a bonfire-rally for the Yoe High School student body.

Then came the Jaycee Special train, boarded by about 600 Yoeman fans, including the 100-piece YHS marching band. And finally the Bellville-Cameron grid-iron tussle, won by Bellville in the fourth quarter, 22-13.

It was fun all the way. And here are the pictures to prove it.

FAR OUT—The newest approach to destroying the English language is the mumbblings of the much-heralded "Beat Generation."

Actually a derivative of musicians' bop talk, the language of the 1957-58 "Cat" turns on phrases that only suggest the topic of conversation.

For instance, a member of the "Beat" set describes something he considers good as "cool" or "the most" or just "crazy."

These are his responses to most any pleasing situation. But if the subject is really appreciated, he finds it "way out, I mean far out."

99-99-99—It is difficult to see why the connotations of words have to be changed. After all, there are about 200,000 words in the English language to describe "the furthest, the least or the in-between." One thing is certain, however. The bug is contagious. I find it's really a cool day, really fine, I mean it's wowsville. Ah, you know what I mean.

99-99-99—The football train to Bellville last week was another example of tremendous Cameron enthusiasm. In fact, it was a fine community effort to find some 600-700 boosters who wanted to boost Yoe High's football team with their attendance at a non-conference game that was not a strong interschool rivalry.

It was an effort definitely recognized by Bellville officials and citizenry. Official greeters awaited Cameronites as they detrained at the Bellville station. And SH 36 was blocked off expressly for a wide walkway from the train station to the Bellville gridiron.

NM 'Big Push' Underway In Cameron Area

"Operation Big Push" is underway for the United Fund with volunteer workers from the Lions, Rotary and Kiwanis Clubs calling on 200 local business firms for pledges prior to the general North Milam drive later this month.

Campaign Chairman Don G. Humble said that less than 50 per cent of the workers in the special gifts drive had reported at press time, but a full report should be available next week.

Mrs. Lyle McDermott, chairman of the house-to-house canvass, told The Herald that her workers would start Monday.

'58 Taxes Listed

Tax Assessor-Collector Valter White today said that 11,216 tax statements were mailed out to property owners in Milam County.

He said that taxes were based on a $21,622,620 valuation of county property in 1958.

Total revenue expected from the 1958 listing is $300,432, White said.

Milam County's tax rate is 95 cents per $100 valuation.

The state tax total is $112,690.92 while the common school district tax totals $90,796.50.

Residents in the Brushy Creek Watershed will pay $1,353.55 in taxes. The tax rate is 5 cents per $100 valuation.

Taxpayers can save 3 percent of their total taxes if paid in October, White concluded.

Parade, Queens To Start Fete Before Contest

A crucial gridiron contest will highlight the 1958 Yoe High School Homecoming when Belton and Cameron collide tomorrow night at Yoe Field.

The homecoming queen will be selected from four YHS class candidates and announced at halftime Friday.

An annual homecoming parade will be held Friday morning in downtown Cameron with the four candidates and their courts riding on floats.

On the gridiron, the outcome of the Yoe-Belton battle will probably decide the winner of the 18-AA district title. Both teams are rated favorites for the crown. It will be the first conference game for both teams.

Belton (3-2-1) will bring a strong defensive club to Cameron. Coach Jim Speer told Cameron quarterbacks at a Monday night meeting, Cameron (2-2-1) will be vying for the big win which would clear the way for a sweep of the remaining 18-AA games unless Rosebud, Rogers or Hearne could muster an upset.

Supt. Wiley Loughmiller said the presentation will be based on best ticket sales and float judging outcome. The parade will begin at 11:30 a.m.

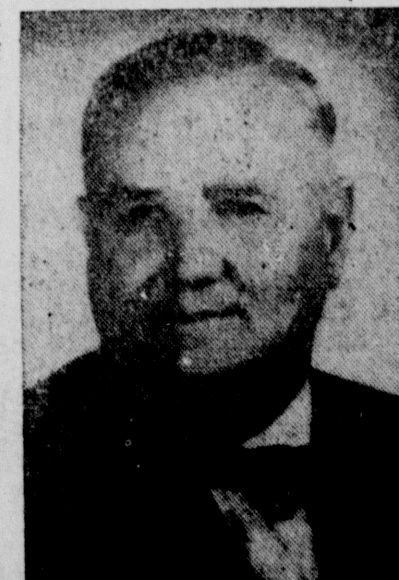

Belton will hope to hold down the brace of Yoeman backs, according to scouting reports. The teams will be about even in weight. Belton has won the 18-AA conference two years in a row, prior to Cameron's re-entry.

Starting lineups are:

Dropping T In C For Pride

In the current hit musical on New York's Broadway, "The Music Man", there is a sprightly number called "Trouble."

We are reminded of this song when we look around us at the growth developments in Cameron.

The punch line of the song goes something like: "Yes, friends, we've got trouble, spelled with a capital T which rhymes with P which stands for pool."

Cameron is seeing the capital T's and rhyming them with capital P's which stand for pride in progress.

It is stretching a point perhaps to compare Cameron's growth picture with the lyrics of a nonsense song. Yet we see the results of knowing our troubles and a willingness to build over them.

Cameronites can't help but feel pride at the construction improvements underway at this moment. We have a $110,000 armory underway, a US 77 widening project to be let in November, three sewerline projects soon to come, efficient sewage and water plants, to name a few.

We have construction of an education building at the First Methodist Church, a new store front at Hornung's Hatchery, another underway at Ideal Hatchery and literally dozens of homes being repainted or completed.

This we call progress. These things we count with pride. Soon there will be a paving and curbing project on East 10th St. And there will be much other evidence of civic, home and cultural improvement.

When we recount all these things, we know capital P stands for pride in Cameron.

A drive around Cameron bolsters long-established pride in this historic city. Just count the number of homes in various stages of improvement, expansion or repainting. Our pride swells as the count rises.

We might say: "We're dropping capital T (trouble) in capital C (Cameron) for a capital P which stands for pride."

THE LITTLE RIVER PHILOSOPHER

Sage Claims He Can Save US Millions In Foreign Aid

Dear editor:

I guess it's all right to put your best foot forward, but once in a while it doesn't hurt to let visitors in on the fact you've got another foot too.

Yours faithfully,
 J. A.

Every once in a while I read in the papers where some visiting delegation from a foreign country is coming to this country to inspect farms and ranches, and I have discovered right there is where this country makes a big mistake.

That is, there's nothing wrong in having the delegations visit over here, but where this country slips up is in showing them the wrong farms.

What happens? Somebody in Washington lines up the best farms in the country, hires an air-conditioned bus, whisks the visitors from one good farm to another, the kinds of farms where all the machinery is brand new, the fences stock all rolling fat, the fences painted white, lawns mowed like a country estate, etc.

Well, there are a lot of good farms in this country, but psychologically we couldn't do worse than to show them off to visitors from foreign countries. It gives the wrong impression.

What happens is that they see all these fine farmsteads, find out what new tractors cost, etc., and they go back home and report America is so prosperous it ought to be good for twice the size of the land they got from us last year.

I believe I could save this country millions of dollars in foreign aid if it'd send a few foreign delegations by my Johnson grass farm out here on Little River. After a trip over my place, trying to open and shut my sagging gates, looking at my equipment and checking up on my yields, most delegations would shake their heads, pull themselves together, and flee back home before this country started asking theirs for foreign aid.

Pros, Cons For Nine State Amendments

By Vern Sanford
Texas Press Association

AUSTIN, Tex.—More dust is being stirred up over issues than over candidates, in the build-up to the General Election, Nov. 4.

Texasans will vote on nine proposed amendments to the Constitution. One of them, providing for annual sessions and salaries in the Legislature, is the subject of hot debate.

A condensed outline of the amendments and arguments being presented for and against follows: (Numbers correspond to the order in which amendments will appear on the ballot.)

1. Would provide for annual sessions of the Legislature. Odd-year sessions would be devoted to all matters, as before, and even-year sessions would attend to budgeting and emergency matters. Legislators would receive an annual salary of $7,500 (instead of $25 a day for a 120-day session) and an unspecified amount for "expenses of office."

PRO: Supporters say annual sessions will allow more time for consideration of important matters. State financial planning could be done for one year at a time. No more having to "guesstimate" financial needs for two years ahead. Better pay would be a step toward attracting the best qualified persons to lawmaking. Such influential and hard-working groups as the Texas Junior Chamber of Commerce are pushing this amendment.

CON: Equally outspoken are the opponents who say it would cause needless expense when money is already short. More time in session means more chances to spend money. Proposed salary still is not enough to attract top-notch talent, but "expenses of office" could open the door to "fat-catting" with public funds. Sen. Dersey Hardeman of San Angelo is the recognized spokesman for the "antis" which include some other lawmakers and other groups.

2. Would allow counties to extend participation in their retirement, disability and death compensation plans to elective officials of the county and precinct. Present arrangement covers only appointive officials and employees of the county.

PRO: It is a permissive law. No county has to do it unless the voters say so. It would give elective officials the same privilege as appointees, be an attraction to office.

CON: It sets no requirement or length of service. An official might serve one term—or less—and receive benefits.

3. Would allow the County Commissioners Court to fill vacancies in the office of County Judge and Justices of the Peace only until the next general election. Presently such appointments are for the remainder of the unexpired term, up to four years.

PRO: It would give voters the right to choose their own replacement to office as soon as possible.

CON: Since campaigns are so costly, there would be less incentive to run for the office for only a two-year term.

4. Would provide for automatic resignation of a district, county and precinct official who announces for any other public office more than one year before the end of his term in office.

PRO: It would keep officials on the job rather than out campaigning for some other office.

CON: It would discriminate against district, county and precinct officials since other officials—U.S. senators, state senators, railroad commissioners and others with more than two-year terms—can run for another office in mid-term.

5. Would allow Home Rule cities to extend terms of their elective and appointive officials from two years to four years.

PRO: It is permissive; each city can make its own decision. Two-year terms hardly allow an official time to get a program started before he has to get out and run again.

CON: Elections every two years cause interest in government.

6. Would provide pensions, not to exceed $30 a month, for retired Texas Rangers and widows of Rangers who retired before the 1947 State Employees Retirement System was established. Money would come from the Confederate Pension Fund.

PRO: Since funds are available, it would put no extra burden on taxpayers. Protective dating clause would prevent marrying for pensions.

CON: It would allow ex-Rangers to receive pensions for as little as two years' service and with no payments on their part, a more generous arrangement than is provided.

7. Would allow Legislature to appropriate money for advertising the advantages of Texas in nationally-circulated publications. Use of the name or picture of any living state official would be prohibited, and public funds would have to be

Recapturing the serenity of a time, long ago

Sometimes on a quiet street of a sequestered village, one can sense the tranquility of yesteryear's simple life and sturdy virtues. Today's pace is faster, its problems more complex, but the virtue of thrift, so esteemed by our forebears, can still contribute most importantly to our peace of mind. Systematic saving remains today as always, the keystone of happy, contented living.

TELEPHONE TALK

by C. L. Carson, Manager

BE A GOOD PARTY LINE NEIGHBOR

Party line service is good telephone service where the line is shared equally and thoughtfully.

Think of the other families on your line as telephone neighbors. They probably use their service just as you do — making calls to help the household run smoothly and calls to keep in touch with relatives and friends.

By considering the telephone habits and needs of others on your party line just as you'd like them to consider yours, you can help set up a partnership that will give each user his fair share of service.

The ABC's of satisfactory service for all party liners is simply this: Always be considerate. When you lift the receiver and hear someone talking, hang up gently. Answer your telephone promptly and make sure it's your ring before answering. If you have a number of calls to make, allow time between them for others on your line to use the telephone if they wish. Share the line with others and you'll find they'll be glad to share with you — and last, but not least, hang up the receiver with care. One receiver off the hook on a party line takes the whole line out of service. We will appreciate your co-operation. Thank you.

LUXURIOUS — BUT NOT A LUXURY

Got a telephone for your bedroom, yet?

Nothing tops a bedroom telephone for real luxury living. When I'm home using ours, I like to stretch out on the bed with the phone cradled between my shoulder and my ear. I can relax and really talk that way.

There are plenty of good, practical reasons for having a bedroom phone, too. Privacy, for example. And women often say how reassuring it is to have a phone at their bedside when they're alone in the house at night. It's much nicer to be able to "reach" to answer instead of having to dash to another room.

Here in Cameron, a bedroom extension costs only $1.00 a month plus installation. And for a one-time charge of only $10, you can have your choice of any of the nine beautiful color telephones. They're especially smart for bedrooms.

EASY WAY TO KEEP IN TOUCH

I guess at one time or another, we all remember — out of a clear sky — someone we haven't thought of in a long time. "Whatever happened to George?" we say. Or to Ruth, or the Browns, or the Martin family. Usually it's someone we really mean to keep in touch with — like the couple who used to live next door, or old friends in faraway places. But with so much on our minds and so much to do, the months fly by and we never get around to it.

The quick, easy way to make up for lost time is, of course, to use the telephone.

A long distance phone call is the personal, thoughtful way of keeping in touch with those you care about. Try a call tonight, and you'll see what I mean.

Call by number. It's twice as fast.

1959 Chevrolet Models Offer Complete Style Transformation

A complete styling transformation, along with more safety, comfort and performance, was announced today for the 1959 Chevrolet passenger car line, on display at Earle Pearson Chevrolet, 100 S. Travis.

The cars, which will be displayed at nationwide dealer showings on Thursday, October 16, represent one of the most imaginative designs ever to come from the automobile industry.

In shape, and in detail, the new styling reflects the influence of a space-conscious age. Lines sweep rearward in a virtually level plane. Tops are flatter and visibility is dramatically increased.

Appreciably lower, the overall appearance of fleetness is further conveyed by an adroitly sculptured frontal area. At the rear, horizontal wings branch out from the center of the deck in a simultaneous mobility that might have been conceived on the sands of Cape Canaveral.

While the unusual appearance will draw instant admiration, Chevrolet has not neglected other phases of engineering in its bid to continue the sales popularity registered by the company in 1958.

Here are some of the 1959 mechanical highlights:

A new six-cylinder engine, named the Hi-Thrift because of added economy through re-design in valving and carburetion, gives up to 10 per cent more mileage, plus more usable horsepower at normal driving speeds.

Fundamental improvements in coil spring suspension, incorporating specialized controls. Refinements in the optional Level Air suspension to acquire softer, quieter operation.

Larger braking surfaces, benefitting further by flanged drums and 27 per cent more lining area provide surer stops, longer life. Tires improved for durability and reduced in rolling resistance through newly developed cords, which run cooler, offer a softer ride and last longer.

Worthy of particular attention in the new bodies is the introduction of a new acrylic lacquer, a nine-step metal finishing process that adds depth to color and remarkable luster longevity. Under the new acrylic body surfaces will not require polishing for as much as three years in normal climates.

Extraordinary visibility characterizes the entire line. Glass now extends higher into roofs and curves farther inward at corners of the body super-structure. Narrow pillars, as well, encourage the feeling of alriness.

PETROLEUM—basic to the needs of our time

Oil and natural gas have powered most of the great technological advances of modern times; petroleum hydrocarbons have transformed the dreams of inventors into the realities of engineers... Today, in the United States, oil and natural gas provide about 75% of the country's energy requirements; and large quantities of oil, available for production beyond immediate need, are necessary to the national security.

An obvious example is the gasoline that powers our automobiles; another is the diesel fuel burned by post-war railway engines. But do not overlook electric power plants, the airplane, whether jet or propeller driven, factory power plants, farm mechanization, and the revolution since World War II in home heating devices. Oil provides the energy that moves the trucks, airplanes, ships and tanks of our Armed Forces.

But petroleum as a source of energy is only part of the story. In the past two decades, the petrochemicals have supplied the country with a vigorous new industry: already most of our rubber is made from petrochemicals... the ubiquitous plastics derive from petroleum products... paraxylene, a petrochemical, is the raw material for one of the most useful of the new fabrics. In this area, wonders never cease; the petrochemicals contribute more each year to the efficiency, comfort, and convenience of modern living.

Thus, oil's progress has made other progress possible all along the front of American industry... Petroleum is the American resource that is basic to the needs of our time... that is essential to our national security.

The Humble Company, established in 1917, has developed with the industry.

Humble's exploration activities extend from Florida around the rim of the country to California, Oregon and Washington, and beyond to the new State of Alaska... The Company is a leader in the production of oil and gas in the United States... Humble Pipe Line Company is a public carrier transporting not only Humble's oil but that of many other companies and independent producers to Gulf Coast terminals... Baytown refinery is one of the nation's great manufacturing plants... And Humble is a marketer in the Southwest, supplying the needs of motorists in modern service stations.

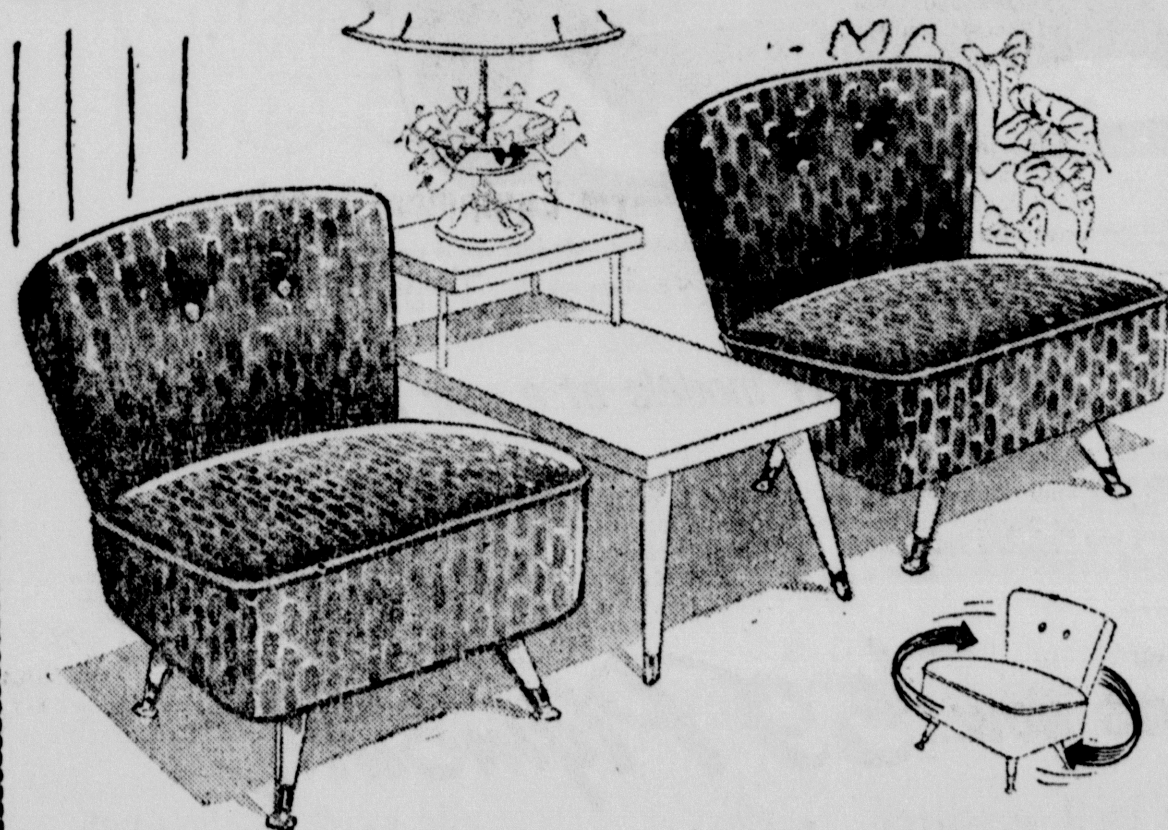

The Humble Company believes strongly in research, maintains two outstanding research facilities, and annually budgets considerable sums for this activity... Humble research has made substantial contributions to the discovery, production, and utilization of petroleum.

Bulletins Available On Breeding Cattle

The Texas Agricultural Extension Service has released 2 new bulletins that can be very helpful to anyone desiring information and advice on developing an aggressive breeding program. The bulletins are B-908 BREEDING PROGRAMS FOR COMMERCIAL BEEF HERDS, and B-909 BREEDING PROGRAMS FOR REGISTERED BEEF HERDS.

The success of a beef cattle program.

The practice of mating outstanding bulls with outstanding cows, used by breeders to establish our present beef breeds, is still the best method of improving beef cattle.

Use of production information, such as regularity of calving, weaning weight, gaining ability, conformation, finish and carcass information, makes it possible for a breeder to select animals that are, 1, outstanding producers, 2-will develop into outstanding producers or 3, select matings that should result in animals capable of outstanding production.

These publications discuss selection of cows, selection of bulls, evaluation of calves and yearlings and other related topics. They are available from the local county agents office.

Hog Breeding

Research studies continue to indicate that selective breeding can be quite effective in developing more muscular meat-type hogs.

Researchers at the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Beltsville, Md., research center found that in three generations, Duroc hogs selected for breeding, because of their low fat, decreased the backfat thickness of their offspring by 11 per cent. Hogs of the same breed selected for high fat produced animals with a backfat increase of 14 per cent in the third generation.

Animals chosen with significantly less backfat than the herd average transmitted about 41 per cent of that advantage to their offspring. On the other hand, animals chosen with more backfat than the average transmitted about 57 per cent of this characteristic to their progeny. The apparent higher heritability of fatness compared to leanness, emphasizes the importance of careful selection developing meat-type hogs.

At the slaughter, the third-generation Duroc hogs bred for leanness yielded 3 per cent more trimmed hams, loins and shoulder butts than third-generation hogs bred for fatness. For every 200-pound Duroc marketed third generation lean-line pigs averaged 6.2 pounds more lean cuts and 10 pounds less fat cuts than fat-line animals although the fat line yielded 1.2 pounds more bacon per pig.

However, the researchers warn, progress in developing a greater lean-to-fat ratio may not be so rapid in succeeding generations.

Since 1940, newspapers have maintained a constant level of popularity. Newspaper circulation has virtually paralleled the growth of households in the United States. More than 44 million of the 50 million U. S. households will receive a newspaper today.

News is the plural of the word "new". The Greeks' word for it was "neos" and it became in Anglo-Saxon "neowe" and later in middle English "news". It is akin to the French "nouvelles".

Capitol Report —

matched by private funds.
PRO: Texas is one of only three states without a state program to attract tourists and industry. Proponents say it would pay for itself many times by bringing new money into the state.

CON: This should be handled by the businesses who would benefit through their trade associations, chambers of commerce, etc.

8. Would allow the Legislature to appropriate money to pay for medical care for people who receive old age assistance, aid to the blind and aid to dependent children.

PRO: It would provide help for people whose small monthly checks cannot possibly cover medical emergencies. Since payments would be made only to the vendor (doctor, hospital or what not), the money could be used only for its intended purpose.

CON: It would cost the state an estimated $9,000,000, with no limit on how much it could drain from the Treasury. It would mean double taxation for cities and counties already providing medical care for their needy.

9. Would allow the Legislature to authorize creation of hospital districts in Amarillo, Wichita County and Jefferson County.

PRO: It is permissive. People in the affected areas could decide what they want to do with it.

CON: Proposed amendment is long (1,000 words), detailed and so complicated that few voters can even understand it. If such provisions are needed, they should be made in statutes rather than by adding to our already-long Constitution.

TEXAS CHAMPIONS OF FREEDOM

DAVID CROCKETT

Fighter Without Fear in the Cause of Liberty

From the days he played hockey from school to the moment he fell mortally wounded in the Alamo, Davy Crockett placed freedom first. Born in north-east Tennessee in 1786, Davy was a runaway from home discipline at 13, and back at 15...for schooling which he earned by working for the schoolmaster. Later, marriage and children...then freedom beckoned again. He was off to join the army of General Andrew Jackson. When food failed the army, Crockett proved himself a superb hunter, with special attention to "Bears." Then...the years in which he lived successfully the life of magistrate, colonel of militia, Tennessee legislator and U. S. Congressman.

When beaten in a later race for Congress, Crockett felt he had been the victim of corruption and took out for Texas...to fight for my rights." From San Augustine, January 8, 1836, he wrote to his daughter, "I would rather be in my present situation than to be elected to Congress for life." Almost immediately Davy Crockett and a few of his "Tennessee boys" joined Wm. B. Travis, to defend the Alamo. On March 6, 1836, the tall, broad-shouldered, black-haired Crockett gave his life for freedom and Texas.

Today Texans still demand and get their right to choose the way they want to live. In this vigorous and freedom-minded homeland... "Beer Belongs" and this is why the United States Brewers Foundation works constantly, in conjunction with brewers, wholesalers and retailers, to assure the sale of beer and ale under pleasant, orderly conditions. Believing that strict law enforcement serves the best interest of Texans, the Foundation stresses close cooperation with the Armed Forces, law enforcement and governing officials in its continuing Self-Regulation program.

Tom Murray's Column

A FELLOW, name of Adolph, once dreamed of a super race. His plan, history relates, failed.

Now cometh another mortal with a plan for superior blood lineage. Darrell Tully, the country boy who suddenly finds himself the darling of Houston sports writers, apparently deals in blue-ribbon stock at plush Spring Branch.

Tully departed poverty-stricken Dallas to pump wind into Galveston sails before assuming command at Spring Branch, where it is rumored he takes home in excess of $10,000 per year for coaching mere high school boys. As the horse munching prickly pear might say, "That aint hay!"

Impressed with the surroundings including unlimited raw material, Tully endeavors to instill an aristocracy befitting the once mighty New York Yankees. As one Houston writer penned, "It won't be long before state championships are rolling in, ala Abilene. Tully and Spring Branch will make a big splash with ripples reaching from the Red River to the Rio Grande."

Tully does not attempt to hide his intentions under a bushel. He freely predicts success. He may, however, be taking his cue from the Spring Branch official who said, in effect: "We are taking over this district as of right now!"

Impressive confidence has replaced the defeatist attitude once prevalent in Houston's mushrooming silk-stocking section. Like telling Baytown Track Coach Beverly Rockhold: "You had best win while you can. Because we are going to run you off the track from now on!"

Only collegiate football's elite can afford the photographic luxury of Dallas' famed Laughead Studios. But Tully saw to it that his high school youngsters pranced before the expensive lenses. "Nothing," he said, "is too good for our kids."

Friday Tully's Bears, who slaughtered Houston Smiley, 62-0, one week and were stopped 6-0 by Victoria the next, embark upon well-laid plans for that state reign. Intended victims: Baytown's Robert E. Lee Ganders, a good start in anybody's league!

"DARRELL Tully," the fellow informed companions, "tells me" and the voice trailed off. It was a threesome of golf's fabulous... Tommy Bolt, Jimmy Demaret and merits of Tully's operation. They blinked sleepy-eyed over coffee in Bolt's Spring Branch restaurant, where like Duffy's Tavern, the elite meet to eat... Bob Barfield, Pasadena's shrewd football boss, flew to Corpus Christi with assistant Tolly McKown to chart Baytown's expected offensive movements. Bill Stages' Ray Texans failed to cooperate, however, stopping the Ganders' motion like a triphammer smashing milady's limepiece in a 0-0 tie... Silbee's ride swells a little each week for Jasper Flanagan, the old hometown boy who tutors the ends for Hal Lahar's University of Houston Cougars... You can not tell the football player by the score. In 1954, Baytown provided June Davis' Orange Tigers their biggest thrill of the season, beating them only 28-0. The Felines were perhaps the most futile of all Texas 4A football teams. Yet off that Orange team came Hogan Wharton, the 250 pound tackle who pushed Texas Aggie Pre-season All-America Ken Beck around like last year's toy in that 39-7 Houston shocker over the Cadets. Chuck Colvin, 220-pound alternate Cougar tackle, also pastimed on that team. Ironically only Bill Stolhand-ske, alternate unit tackle at Texas, cut collegiate football mustard from that Baytown eleven... Tom Gamble, Lockhart Lawyer, is not amazed at Mickey Mantle's switch-hitting power. Playing for Uncle Billy Disch's Texas Longhorns, he once hit a homerun right-handed and came back in the next inning to knock one out of the park left-handed... Comparing him to Rice All-America Halfback Dick Moegle, one Houston Sports Writer calls San Marcos' Allen Goehring, "The Baby-Faced Assassin". The

Cool Weather Best For Snappers

By L. A. Wilke

Most people go snapper fishing in the summertime.

There are many reasons. Probable the main one is that it is the vacation season. However, another reason is the generally accepted belief that fishing is better in the warm months.

That is more of a legend than a fact. Actually the cool months of the fall and winter seasons are more likely to produce better fishing. Especially is this true when compared with the extreme heat of the summer.

Early in June I went out on the "Sunrise," one of the party boats operated by Raymond Muchowich of Freeport. It was a real hot day, with a summer squall brewing. Out there, some 60 miles in the Gulf of Mexico, every bit of air was just like a breath off the flames of purgatory.

We were fishing at around 25 to 30 fathoms. This meant that every time a snapper hit we had to reel that line up some 150 to 200 feet, depending on the drift of the water. By the time we got our fish to the top, we were wet with sweat.

We'd reach for another cold drink, rest and puff a few minutes and then go back after another snapper.

It was fun. But that night when we go back to the dock we were all just about pooped. It took no rocking to get us to sleep that night.

A few weeks later Vern Sanford and Jimmie Gillentine decided they wanted a fishing trip where they were certain to catch some. After hearing my story of the thing. red snapper, they decided they would try some fishing in the Gulf of Mexico, on one of Raymond's boats.

190-pound Aggie guard and Texas end, may be the most perfect physical specimen in Southwest Conference football for freshmen. If they get untracked, El Campo's Ricebirds have a good "Mr. Inside and Outside." Eugene Dornak, the 9.8 sprinter, naturally can explore the outer regions, while Fullback Gilbert Livanc keeps the defense honest with bull-like charges into the mid-section.

They got in the afternoon before the big event, made all arrangements, and agreed to meet Captain Nelson for breakfast at 2 a.m.

After breakfast they drove to the docks and boarded the "Joe M. Jr.," captained by Louie Sikes, with Pete Melkis as mate.

It was a six hour ride out to the snapper banks, 88 miles into the Gulf. When they got there, around 9 o'clock, the fish started biting immediately.

It was their first experience in deep water fishing. Jimmie is from Hereford, Texas, where it is high and dry. Although Vern lives in Austin, the heat hit him too. But they caught fish.

They found it to be work. But lots of fun too. Although both of them were new at this sport, the take-home was some 25 nice-sized snappers.

That evening, around the dock, they were telling Muchowich how

Taylor Bees Down Yoe B-Team, 22-0 In Thursday Game

The Taylor Duck "B" squad trampled Cameron's B squad 22-0 in Cameron October 2.

The win gave Taylor a perfect record as the C team won a doubleheader from Cameron and the Ducks sent the Yoemen down 18-7. Quarterback Billy Davis was the leader in Taylor offense, scoring once and passing for a touchdown in calling an excellent game.

Taylor started scoring in the first quarter when the Ducks recovered a Cameron fumble and drove 49 yards making 3 first downs. Richard Carrizales carried over from the 4 for a touchdown.

Taylor also scored in the second and third quarter when extra point scoring attempts were both good.

Cameron C Team Drops Rosebud In Opener 16 - 6

The Cameron Yoemen "C" team won their first game of the season October 7 as they romped to a 16-6 victory over neighboring Rosebud after losing a double header to Taylor last Tuesday evening.

The Yoe Yoe's composed of 7th and 8th graders from Ada Henderson took offensive honors gaining 201 total yards rushing, 150 of in the first half.

Rosebud racked up 147 yards, 113 in the first half and 34 in the second.

Cameron's leading ground gainer was Amos Doskocil picking up 91 yards in 11 tries, averaging a terrific 8.3 yards per carry at fullback, among his runs was a 56 yard run touchdown play.

Allen Boyer was the brains of the team at quarterback keeping the ball 16 times and picking up 74 yards, mostly on wide sweeps around left end and averaging 4.9 a carry.

The future Yoemen scored early in the second quarter after a 21 yard run by Boyer from the 23, Doskocil went up the middle for 56 yards and a touchdown, Allen Boyer carried over for the 2 extra points.

Rosebud scored late in the second half from the 2 yard line, the extra point pass attempt failed.

Cameron scored again in the third quarter when halfback Edwin Michalka picked off the ground and ran for 12 yards and a touchdown. Boyer carried over.

Automobiles were offered to consumers "completely equipped" for the first time, in 1910.

In 1957, makers of automotive parts and accessories increased their advertising in newspapers by 141 per cent over the previous year.

Rockdale Alcoans play a vital part in Community Progress

Rockdale Alcoans participate in community affairs. Helping to make their community a better place in which to live and work is an important obligation to them.

Take Sylvester Brosch for example. He's a potroom craneman at Alcoa's Rockdale works where he helps turn out Rockdale's annual production of primary aluminum. Off the job, he's a busy man in the community affairs of Granger where he lives with his wife and three children.

Sylvester is an active member of the Granger Volunteer Fire Department, and of Boy Scout Troop #173 which he serves as Assistant Scoutmaster. He's helping to organize a local council of the Knights of Columbus. As a World War II veteran, he's busy with affairs of his local VFW post.

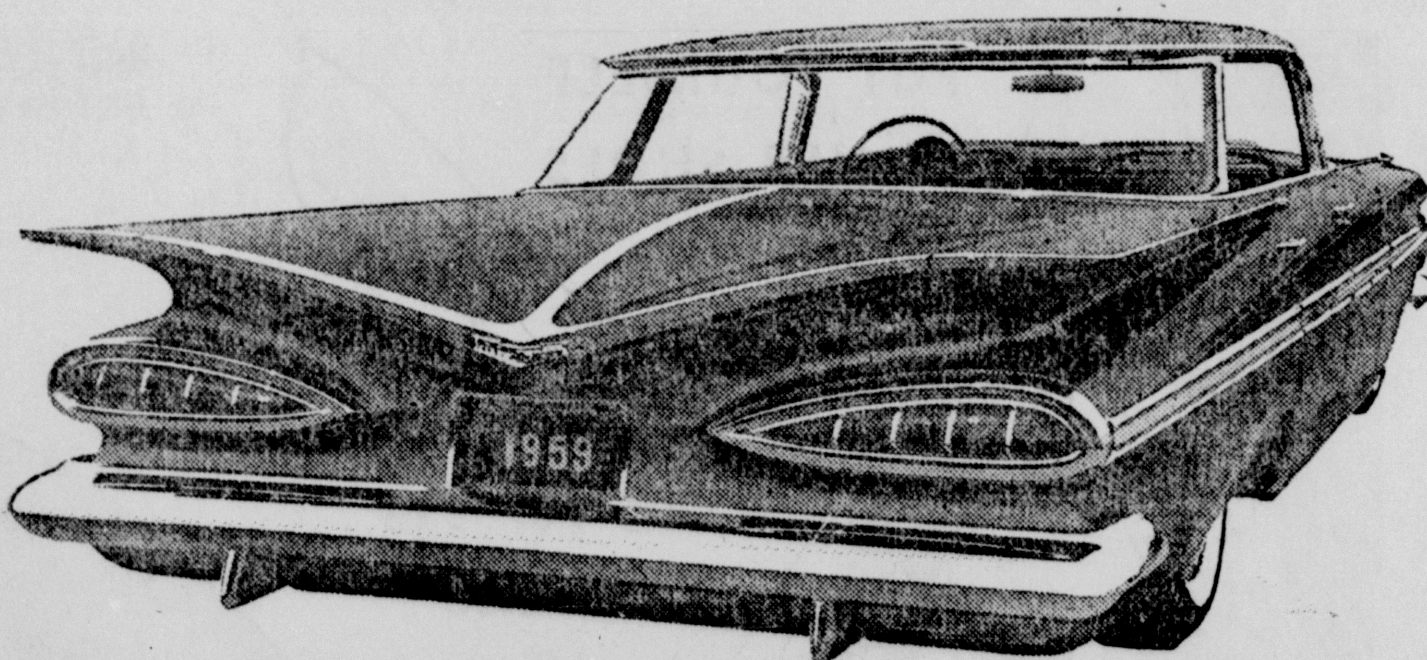

Sylvester Brosch and thousands of other Alcoans throughout the country take great pride in their contributions to the betterment of their communities... through active participation in social, civic, educational and cultural organizations and in their local governments.
